

PhD. Kumiko Ahr-Okutomo

Born in January 1959 in Japan.

Studied Physical Education (B.A.) at College of Humanities and Sciences, Nihon University, Tokyo.

After teaching Physical Education in a junior high school in Japan, joined Japan Overseas Cooperation Volunteers (JOCV) for two years to teach Physical Education in Sri Lanka (1985 – 1987). After working as contract employee at Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) moved to and lives in Switzerland since married in 1989.

Studied Political Science (M.A.) at the Philosophical Faculty, the University of Zurich, Switzerland between 2002 and 2008.

Doctoral study in Political Science at the Philosophical Faculty, the University of Zurich, from 2009 to 2013. A research associate at the Institute of Strategic Studies of Professor Albert A. Stahel.

Voluntary work for Tsunami victims of the Sumatra Earthquake and Tsunami in 2004 in Sri Lanka and the Great East Japan Earthquake and Tsunami in 2011 in Japan.

Also employee of the UBS Asset Management from 2001 to June 2013.